Greenbaum, Rowe, Smith & Davis LLP is pleased to announce the establishment of the Greenbaum, Rowe, Smith & Davis LLP Spendable Scholarship at the Seton Hall University School of Law, located in Newark, New Jersey. In support of the firm's longstanding relationship with the students, graduates and faculty of Seton Hall Law, the funding of this scholarship will provide financial assistance to facilitate the success of law school students who demonstrate financial need and are in good academic standing, with preference given to students who have demonstrated plans to practice in New Jersey.

Throughout the years, Greenbaum has provided career opportunities to dozens of Seton Hall Law graduates. At present, nearly two dozen of the firm's partners, associates and other attorneys are proud Seton Hall Law alumni. In addition, and in recognition of Seton Hall Law's excellence and value as an educational resource, participants in Greenbaum's annual Summer Associate Program, which serves as a base from which many of the firm's entry-level attorneys are hired following graduation, are frequently recruited from the ranks of Seton Hall Law.

Greenbaum managing partner W. Raymond Felton comments: "Seton Hall Law is an exceptional place to develop a strong foundation for practicing law and has provided our firm with the opportunity to bring many talented lawyers into our practice. We are honored to announce the formation of this scholarship and look forward to a continued and mutually productive relationship with everyone associated with this outstanding educational institution."
