

Emily A. Kaller Honored with Prestigious Trial Bar Award

September 9, 2024

Greenbaum, Rowe, Smith & Davis LLP proudly announces that Emily A. Kaller has been selected to receive a 2024 Trial Bar Award from the Trial Attorneys of New Jersey (TANJ). Ms. Kaller will be recognized at the organization's 56th Annual Trial Bar Award Reception on Wednesday, October 16th, 2024, at the Pleasantdale Chateau in West Orange.

The Trial Bar Award honors experienced trial lawyers whose professional careers exemplify the highest standards of trial practice and ethical conduct. The selection criteria for this prestigious recognition includes an individual's service to TANJ and the greater legal profession, community service, and professional reputation within New Jersey's community of attorneys and judges.

Ms. Kaller, a past President of TANJ, joins a highly selective group of New Jersey attorneys who have been recipients of the Trial Bar Award since it was first conferred in 1968. "From the time I began practicing law, I have admired the venerated attorneys recognized by TANJ each year at its Trial Bar Awards, never dreaming I might one day be a recipient," she comments. "I am truly honored to receive this award and deeply humbled to be included among such an accomplished group of attorneys."

As a partner in the firm's Litigation Department, Ms. Kaller has experience in the prosecution and defense of financing, credit and other banking matters, contract disputes, environmental contamination contribution actions, and complex litigation. Her work encompasses class action litigation in matters involving consumer claims, alleged securities fraud and personal injury. She has represented clients in state and federal courts, including appellate practice. Her chancery practice includes estate litigation, claims for injunctive relief in business disputes, shareholder disputes and restrictive covenants. She has also conducted and assisted with internal investigations on behalf of public and private entities in connection with a variety of matters.
