

Dennis A. Estis Inducted as Charter Fellow of Litigation Counsel of America

July 24, 2007

On June 21, 2007, Woodbridge attorney Dennis A. Estis, of Greenbaum, Rowe, Smith & Davis LLP, was inducted as a Charter Fellow into the Litigation Counsel of America (LCA) at the LCA's Spring Conference and Induction of Fellows in New York.

Estis is a partner of the firm in its Litigation Department, chair of the Construction Practice Group, and a member of the Planned Real Estate Practice Group. He concentrates his practice in the area of complex litigation - particularly relating to construction, condominiums, general business disputes, alternate dispute resolution (ADR), and real estate.

Estis is co-chair of the Construction Committee of the Dispute Resolution Section of the American Bar Association (ABA) and is a past chair of the Construction Committee of the ABA's Section of Litigation. Estis is a member of the New Jersey State Bar Association's Construction and Public Contracts Section and has been a member of its General Council for more than 10 years. He is a past president of the Middlesex County Bar Association. Estis is also a Fellow of the National Conference of Bar Presidents. He is on the American Arbitration Association's (AAA) Panel of Arbitrators and is a member of the AAA National Roster of Neutrals. He has been chosen for The International Who's Who of Construction Lawyers 2007 and is listed in the 2006-2007 edition of The Best Lawyers on America under Construction Law.

Estis, a graduate of The Johns Hopkins University, earned his law degree from New York University School of Law. In addition, Estis is currently president of The Discovery Orchestra.

The Litigation Counsel of America is a trial lawyer honorary society composed of less than one-half of one percent of all American lawyers. Fellowship in the LCA is highly selective and by invitation only. Fellows are selected based upon effectiveness and accomplishment in litigation, both at the trial and appellate levels, and superior ethical reputation. The LCA is aggressively diverse in its composition. Established as a trial and appellate lawyer honorary society reflecting the American bar in the twenty-first century, the LCA represents the best in law among its membership.
