

Andrea J. Sullivan Installed as President of Middlesex County Bar Association

May 26, 2016

Andrea J. Sullivan, a partner in the firm's Litigation and Family Law Departments, has been installed as President of the Middlesex County Bar Association (MCBA) for the 2016-17 term. This year's Installation Dinner was held on May 25, 2016 at the Grand Marquis in Old Bridge.

Ms. Sullivan, who served as MCBA President-Elect for 2015-16, is Chair of the Bar's Women Lawyers Section, Chair of the Chancery Practice and Membership Committees, and is a former MCBA Trustee. She is also a past president of the Middlesex County Bar Foundation, where she continues to serve as a board member. In 2010, Ms. Sullivan was the recipient of the MCBA's Robert J. Cirafasi Chancery Practice Award.

Ms. Sullivan's litigation practice encompasses the representation of individuals and business entities in commercial, estate, matrimonial, chancery litigation, and alternative dispute resolution. She has significant experience in handling contract and partnership disputes, actions involving closely held companies, oppressed minority shareholder litigation, hiring and termination of senior employees, non-compete issues, and other "business divorce" matters. In the areas of estate litigation and matrimonial law, Ms. Sullivan's practice concentrates primarily on the representation of high net-worth individuals, including the resolution of matters requiring sophisticated business valuations.

Ms. Sullivan is the co-author of two important treatises, "New Jersey Business Litigation" and "Guidebook to Chancery Practice in New Jersey." She is listed in The Best Lawyers in America and New Jersey Super Lawyers, and is Peer Review Rated AV Preeminent by Martindale-Hubbell.
