

INDIA-U.S. CROSS-BORDER

Hodgson Russ represents Indian clients conducting business in the United States and domestic and international clients doing business or seeking to do business in India. The firm's India practice involves providing advice to clients operating in various industries, including telecommunication, aviation, software, construction, food, and manufacturing.

Our lawyers work seamlessly across practice groups to provide clients with assistance concerning diverse projects. Hodgson Russ provides advice to companies seeking to establish businesses or enter into joint ventures or financing transactions. We also represent clients in areas that include intellectual property licensing and technology transfer agreements, sales and franchise agreements, real estate transactions, immigration issues, and tax matters.

Our attorneys have in-depth experience working with Indian companies, the Indian legal community, and the Indian National Bar Association. We also visit India on a regular basis and frequently meet with various Indian business delegations.
