Dick concentrates his practice in federal income tax and business, with a particular emphasis on structuring the acquisition and disposition of commercial real estate and other business holdings. He has represented both public and private companies on acquisition and disposition transactions as well as financing and equity investments. He has represented numerous developers in connection with tax-motivated real estate syndications, including brownfields credit, low-income housing credit, new markets credit, and rehabilitation credit projects. As part of his real estate tax experience, he has structured investments in the hotel industry for more than 25 years, and created limited partnerships, limited liability companies, and real estate investment trusts (REITs). Additionally, he has represented clients in the litigation finance industry since that industry's inception in the 1980s.

Hodgson Russ closed a merger transaction on behalf of a long-time, NASDAQ-listed defense and aerospace products manufacturing client. As a result of the merger, the client became a wholly owned subsidiary in a deal valued at approximately $275 million. The closing completed a four-month project in which attorneys from many of our practices contributed in significant ways under intense time pressures and opposite some of the largest firms in the country. Our work included advising our client's board in connection with its fiduciary duties; negotiating the merger agreement; preparing a proxy statement for the special meeting of shareholders and dealings with the SEC and FINRA; defending the company and the board in two shareholder lawsuits alleging, among other things, breach of fiduciary duty by the board; appearing in federal and state court and ultimately settling the lawsuits; advising management on directors and officers insurance matters; advising the board and management on certain options and other benefit matters; handling HSR filings; and assisting on financing related to the transaction.

Hodgson Russ represented a Finnish client in the heat transfer industry in connection with the formation of worldwide joint venture company with a Texas corporation. We also represented this client in the subsequent purchase of the entire company. In addition to corporate work, we assisted this client with respect to compliance law and merger compliance matters.

Hodgson Russ attorneys represented senior management in their purchase of a leading full-service grocery retailer in upstate New York, northern Pennsylvania, and western Vermont. The grocery retailer operates 155 full-service supermarkets and has more than 15,000 associates. Hodgson Russ also represented the senior management group in the financing of this purchase.

A Hodgson Russ team represented the Buffalo Sabres and its affiliate, HARBORCENTER, in conjunction with the development of HARBORCENTER, an approximately $200 million, 600,000-square-foot sports, retail, entertainment, parking, and hospitality complex. This first-of-its-kind mixed-used facility includes two ice rinks; a 19-story, full-service Marriott hotel; a sports-themed nightclub and restaurant; retail space; and an 800-car parking facility, all of which are connected to the existing Key Bank Center via skywalk. Hodgson Russ has worked with the Sabres on all aspects of this project from its inception, including environmental review, contract negotiations, permitting, construction, economic development incentives, financing, and tax planning.

Hodgson Russ formed a $100 million private real estate investment trust (REIT) to acquire assets in the hospitality industry and then structured and completed the trust's first hospitality investment.

On an annual basis, Hodgson Russ attorneys prepare private placement memoranda, including tax opinions, for an independent oil and gas company to offer units to accredited investors in limited partnerships that will invest in the drilling of oil and natural gas wells.

Hodgson Russ represented a Fortune 1000 company in the acquisition of the interests and real property of a privately held specialty parts manufacturer with locations on four continents. Our responsibilities included environmental due diligence review, the management of various environmental consultants, risk analyses related to various acquired properties, and contract drafting and negotiation.

A team of Hodgson Russ attorneys led by John J. Zak represented long-time client, Integer Holdings Corporation (NYSE: ITBR), in its successful tax-free spin-off of its subsidiary, QiG Group, LLC, which converted into Nuvectra Corporation prior to the completion of the spin-off. Nuvectra is a medical device company that is concentrated on the development and commercialization of its neurostimulation technology platform, and, in particular, its Algovita spinal cord stimulation system, for the treatment of various disorders through the stimulation of tissues associated with the nervous system. As part of the spin-off, Nuvectra received approval to list and to have its common stock traded on the NASDAQ Global Market under the symbol “NVTR.” Hodgson Russ advised on all aspects of the separation of Nuvectra from Greatbatch and the corresponding distribution of the Nuvectra shares of common stock to Greatbatch’s stockholders, including the registration of Nuvectra with the SEC, the listing of Nuvectra’s common stock on the Nasdaq Global Market, facilitating the negotiation of agreements between Nuvectra and Greatbatch to establish a framework for their post spin-off relationship; preparation of corporate governance policies and procedures for Nuvectra as a newly publicly-traded company and assisting in the separation of Greatbatch’s existing employee benefit programs and the establishment of new programs by Nuvectra. The team of Hodgson Russ attorneys consisted of Craig M. Fischer (securities regulation and corporate compliance); Christofer C. Fattey (banking and finance); Terrence M. Gilbride and Elizabeth A. Holden (real estate); Ryan M. Murphy and Richard W. Kaiser (employee benefits); Peter C. Godfrey (labor and employment); Richard F. Campbell and Andrew D. Oppenheimer (business tax); and paralegal Courtney Scanlon.

Hodgson Russ represented a large real estate brokerage firm in a tax-free spin-off and reorganization of its statewide brokerage business.
