Partner, Employee Benefits Practice Leader

mflanaga@hodgsonruss.com 716.848.1480

For more than 15 years, Michael has concentrated his practice in employee benefits law, with a focus on welfare benefits. He represents numerous public employers such as school districts and municipalities while also counseling employers in many different types of private sector industries, such as manufacturing, healthcare and more. Mike's private employer clients cover a broad range of industries and he is fully equipped to handle different sectors.

Mike is proficient in matters regarding the Affordable Care Act (ACA), the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act (COBRA), the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA), and tax compliance for welfare plans.

He has considerable experience in drafting employee benefit plan documents and summary plan descriptions, as well as negotiating administrative service agreements related to the operation of self-insured health plans. Mike also has substantial experience defending clients who have received proposed assessment penalties under the Affordable Care Act.

Experience

A Hodgson Russ team helped a large public company organize and restructure its numerous and complex benefit programs into a single, comprehensive ERISA welfare benefits plan. In this process, our attorneys assisted the client by drafting a consolidated ERISA plan document and summary plan description; providing counsel with respect to the implementation and administration of wellness and smoker cessation initiatives that included advice regarding compliance with HIPAA nondiscrimination rules; and providing counsel with respect to the implementation and administration of a disease management and electronic health record initiative that included advice regarding compliance with federal (i.e., HIPAA) and state law privacy and security laws. We also provided counsel with respect to the implementation and administration of policies and procedures designed to ensure compliance with FMLA, COBRA, the Children's Health Insurance Program Reauthorization Act, the Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act, the Wellstone-Domenici Mental Health Parity Act, the proposed cafeteria plan regulations, and the Affordable Care Act. Additionally, our attorneys provided a comprehensive review of numerous administrative service agreements related to the client's complex health care program involving disease management and wellness initiatives and electronic health records, and counsel with respect to numerous retiree plan benefit structures.

When a European-based heavy machinery manufacturer sought to strengthen its presence in North America, it saw in a U.S. company the perfect opportunity to expand its product line and distribution capabilities in the United States. With the help of Hodgson Russ, the U.S. division of this manufacturer completed the acquisition of this company and its complementary product line, thereby significantly increasing the size of its U.S. operations and positioning itself for future growth in this market. The acquisition — valued at approximately $43 million, combining a cash purchase price and assumption of debt — is the multinational manufacturer's largest U.S. acquisition to date. The company's U.S. employee base more than quadrupled with the addition of the U.S. company's approximately 400 employees, and it added locations in Alabama, Florida, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Tennessee, Texas, and other states to its manufacturing and distribution network. Prior to this acquisition, Hodgson Russ handled the incorporation of the European manufacturer's U.S. division and its acquisition of a smaller U.S. manufacturing company. In connection with this expansion, we designed and drafted restricted stock plans to incentivize their key employees. Since this transaction, Hodgson Russ has represented this client in two additional acquisitions, one on the East Coast and one on the West Coast.
