Courtney's responsibilities include assisting in the formation and maintenance of corporations, limited liability companies, professional corporations, and partnerships. She works with entities located within the United States, as well as with Canadian entities expanding into the U.S. market.

Other Experience

Prior to joining Hodgson Russ, Courtney accumulated more than ten years of experience as an intellectual property law paralegal, during which time she provided due diligence, risk mitigation, and portfolio analysis services for software and biotech companies and private equity firms.

Experience

A team of Hodgson Russ attorneys represented an international hotel operator in the closing of a highly complex financing package involving $226.6 million in new CMBS mortgage and mezzanine debt. The transaction involved 17 hotels in 11 states and included the defeasance of $100 million of existing CMBS indebtedness, a major restructuring of the existing hotel owner and management companies, the formation of 20 new entities, the movement of 11 hotel franchises and 7 management agreements, and the buyout of a strategic partner.

A team of Hodgson Russ attorneys led by John J. Zak represented long-time client, Integer Holdings Corporation (NYSE: ITBR), in its successful tax-free spin-off of its subsidiary, QiG Group, LLC, which converted into Nuvectra Corporation prior to the completion of the spin-off. Nuvectra is a medical device company that is concentrated on the development and commercialization of its neurostimulation technology platform, and, in particular, its Algovita spinal cord stimulation system, for the treatment of various disorders through the stimulation of tissues associated with the nervous system. As part of the spin-off, Nuvectra received approval to list and to have its common stock traded on the NASDAQ Global Market under the
