Partner

ckaplan@hodgsonruss.com 646.218.7513

For more than 40 years, Charlie, a Partner in the Labor and Employment Practice, has counseled employers, in the New York City metropolitan area and throughout the United States, concerning the law of the workplace. He has represented management in federal and state trial and appellate courts, before the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC), the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB), and other federal and state agencies, as well as in arbitrations and mediations. Charlie has also advised companies on labor and employment law issues in mergers, acquisitions, and bankruptcies. His broad range of experience includes handling matters involving:

- employment discrimination, sexual harassment, retaliation, equal employment opportunity, and affirmative action
- wage and hour counseling and litigation
- employment and wage and hour collective and class action defense
- wrongful discharge, defamation and other workplace torts
- employment mediations and arbitrations
- labor relations, union organizing and corporate campaigns, collective bargaining, labor arbitrations, unfair labor practices, strikes, picketing, boycotts and labor injunctions
- human resources administration, personnel policies, employee handbooks, and employment at will issues
- disability accommodation, family and medical leave, earned safe time and sick time, employee dishonesty and disloyalty, identity theft and business fraud, drug testing, workplace violence, social media, privacy, independent contractor, whistleblower, occupational safety and health, joint employer, government contracting, and prevailing wage matters
- IRCA compliance, Form I-9 audits, and Immigration and Customs Enforcement proceedings
