

NICOLE E. POPE

Associate

npope@hodgsonruss.com 716.848.1415

Nicole is a member of the Corporate & Securities Practice. She represents domestic and international clients on a variety of business transactions and general corporate matters.

As a law student, Nicole was a judicial intern for Hon. Matthew J. Murphy, Niagara County Court and served as a health advocacy and policy law clerk at the Center for Elder Law & Justice. She was also a student advocate for the William & Mary Elder & Disability Law Clinic.

Prior to law school, she was an intern in the Washington, D.C. office of a member of the U.S. House of Representatives.

Honors

Former Senior Notes Editor, William & Mary Bill of Rights Journal

Phi Beta Kappa

Publications

FinCEN Currently Accepting Comments on Proposed Corporate Transparency Act Rule

Hodgson Russ Corporate & Securities Alert, February 7, 2023

The Guaranty Building
140 Pearl Street
Suite 100
Buffalo, NY 14202

Practices & Industries

Corporate & Business
Mergers & Acquisitions

Admissions

New York

Education

The Catholic University of America, B.A., magna cum laude

William & Mary Law School, J.D.