

TAMMY A. WRISLEY

Senior Paralegal

twrisley@hodgsonruss.com 716.848.1659

Tammy has been a paralegal in the Immigration Practice since 1997. Her experience includes preparing and filing nonimmigrant petitions in the L-1, H-1B, and TN categories, as well as employment-based preference petitions for outstanding researchers and multinational managers and executives. Tammy has extensive experience in the preparation of relative-based cases. She also works extensively on permanent residence applications via consular processing and adjustment of status. She maintains a strong working knowledge of the various procedures at U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services district offices, service centers, and ports-of-entry, as well as procedures and policies at U.S. consular offices around the world.

Publications

Recent Changes in Immigration Policy
EDGE Florida Law Report, 2002

The Guaranty Building
140 Pearl Street
Suite 100
Buffalo, NY 14202

Practices & Industries

Immigration

Education

Canisius College, B.A., with honors

Hilbert College, B.S., with high honors