

OPTIMIZING YOUR CROSS-BORDER BUSINESS: TRENDS IN CROSS-BORDER BUSINESS STRUCTURING AND OPERATIONS

Seminar

Oakville, ON
September 24, 2015
3:30 - 5:00 p.m

September 24, 2015
Oakville, ON

What can businesses and individuals with cross-border interests expect from the United States?

- + Current trends in cross-border business structuring, operations, and resolution of disputes
- + U.S. federal tax update: cross-border tax structures and more IRS reporting
- + The best defense is a good offense: how to challenge the intellectual property of your U.S. competitors
- + U.S. estate tax update: cross-border challenges for Canadians with U.S. ties
- + Getting work done in the United States: a practical guide to engaging U.S. employees and contractors

Who should attend: In-house counsel and other lawyers, CEOs, CFOs, COOs, business owners, accountants, business risk managers, financial planners, investment advisors, and individuals with connections to the United States or looking to enter the U.S. market

Please RSVP by Friday, September 18, 2015. This seminar is complimentary. Seating is limited.

Attorneys

Christine Bonaguide
Katherine Cauley
George Eyd
Jodyann Galvin
Peter Godfrey
Jeffrey Stravino
Marla Waiss

Practices & Industries

Canada-U.S. Cross-Border