Event Sponsor: Hodgson Russ

May 16, 2013
Buffalo, NY

For the latest on regulatory compliance, labor and employment issues, and case law involving municipalities, please join our attorneys as we explore these hot-button topics and discuss new ways to confront the challenges ahead.

Topics:

- Regulatory compliance, including pilot agreements involving IDAs; IRS audits, including private use and compliance procedures; and health care reform
- Labor and employment issues, including employee leave, effective negotiation approaches in challenging economic times, ADA and reasonable accommodations, and health insurance approaches
- What's new in the courts, including recent case law updates on zoning, tax assessment, labor, and other municipal issues

This seminar is complimentary and exclusive to clients and friends of Hodgson Russ. Seating is limited.

Registration will begin at 12:30 p.m. Cocktail reception to follow.

3.5 hours of CLE credit available
