Emina Poricanin, along with State Sen. Chris Jacobs; Assemblyman Robin Schimminger; and Brian Dauksha of the Evans Bank Human Resources Department will be panelists providing information and answer questions in regard to the Paid Family Leave Program at this month's Kenmore-Tonawanda Chamber of Commerce luncheon.

The regulations will take effect Jan. 1 and impact all businesses.

The event is scheduled for 11:45 a.m., with check-in and registration, on Friday, Oct. 20, at Classics V Restaurant in Amherst. Lunch will follow at noon.

Contact the Chamber to learn more about reserving a spot at this event.
