Hodgson Russ is a proud cosponsor of CleantechIQ's latest industry webinar, Implications of New U.S. Tax Law in Cross-Border Transactions, which takes place on Thursday, June 7th, at 10 a.m. Eastern Time (2 p.m. GMT). Our webinar will discuss how the new U.S. tax law impacts cross-border transactions, particularly for European companies entering the U.S. In particular, this presentation will address the following questions:

- At what point do I have a taxable presence in the U.S.?
- What entity, if any, should I use to conduct my business activities in the U.S.?
- How does the latest developments in U.S. tax reform impact these decisions?

Hodgson Russ Tax Practice attorney Andrew Oppenheimer will be leading this essential conversation. To register for this complimentary webinar CLICK HERE.
