November 8, 2018

Join Hodgson Russ and Nordic Innovation House as we explore how to protect intellectual property in the United States.

This webinar will provide an introduction to:

- How to protect your inventions and designs with U.S. patents
- How to protect your brand with U.S. trademarks
- How to stop a competitor from copying your invention, design, or brand

A strong intellectual property portfolio can help defend your company from competitors and can be important to investors.

Who should attend: Startups and entrepreneurs that plan to grow in the U.S., small and mid-sized companies that want to expand to the U.S., research institutes and incubators interested in learning more about intellectual property protection in the U.S.

Panelists: Neil Friedman, Nathaniel Lucek and Melissa Subjectk
