

HIGHLIGHTS: AN OVERVIEW OF CURRENT U.S. TAX TOPICS

Seminar

Toronto, ON
October 29, 2009
Event Sponsor: Hodgson Russ

October 29, 2009
Toronto, ON

St. Andrew's Club & Conference Centre
150 King Street West, 27th Floor, Toronto, Ontario
3:30 – 5 p.m.

Staying on top of — and anticipating — developments in U.S. tax law is crucial for businesses and individuals with cross-border interests. Join us for an update on critical and changing U.S. tax topics with a focus on the unique needs of Canadian individuals and businesses.

Who should attend: Attorneys, in-house counsel, accountants, financial planners, investment advisors, and anyone interested in U.S. tax matters

Topics:

- Dealing With U.S. Reporting Obligations and Aggressive Tax Authorities
- Treaty Hybrid Entities: The New Rules of 2010
- Benefits Issues for a Shrinking Workforce
- Will the Sun Set on the Estate Tax in 2010?
- How Changing Tax Rates Affect Cross-Border Business
- Will Proposed Changes in US International Tax Rules Affect You?

Attorneys

Katherine Cauley
Marla Waiss

Practices & Industries

Business Tax
Canada-U.S. Cross-Border
Trusts & Estates