Choosing a U.S. entity is an important step for Finnish or other Nordic companies expanding in the U.S. The type of entity and location of its formation can affect business management, outside investment, government fees, and taxes.

Please join Hodgson Russ and the Finnish American Chamber of Commerce for a breakfast seminar to learn more about these topics.

Who should attend: Finnish and other Nordic businesses considering U.S. expansion, Finnish entrepreneurs, and individuals seeking a better understand of U.S. corporate structures.
