9:00 a.m. - 10:00 a.m.

January 24, 2019

Choosing a U.S. entity is an important step for European companies expanding in the U.S. The type of entity and location of its formation can affect business management, outside investment, government fees, and taxes. Please join Hodgson Russ LLP and KBC Bank to learn about corporate formation options and corresponding U.S. tax implications for European individuals and companies. This webinar will focus on individuals and companies in Belgium, Czech Republic, Slovakia, Hungary, and Bulgaria, but also will be generally relevant to other European countries.

Who should attend: European businesses considering U.S. expansion, European entrepreneurs, and individuals seeking a better understand of U.S. corporate structures and tax rules.
