

SPECIAL EDUCATION UPDATE ON RECENT STATE AND FEDERAL GUIDANCE CONCERNING THE COVID-19 OUTBREAK

Webinars

May 6, 2020
12:00 - 1:00 p.m.

May 6, 2020

Join our special education attorneys in a discussion regarding the new COVID-19 guidance document issued by the State Education Department's Office of Special Education. We'll discuss the legal and practical implications of the new guidance document, including:

- Evaluations, reevaluations and annual reviews;
- Remote provision of services;
- Communications and collaborations with other districts, nonpublic school placements and BOCES programs during school closure;
- Maintaining documentation related to continuity of learning;
- U.S. Department of Education Secretary Betsy DeVos' letter and recommendations to Congress relative to IDEA requirements and its potential impact upon local school districts.

Who should attend: Board of Education Members, Superintendents, Business Officials, School District Administrators, Special Education Directors, CSE Chairs, other Pupil Services and Special Education staff.
