UPDATED: VIEW A RECORDING HERE.

On May 1, Executive Order (No. 202.26) was issued, outlining the dates and procedures for 2020 school district budget votes and board elections. This followed the initial postponement of the school vote which had been scheduled for May 19. The school vote will now be conducted on June 9. Join Hodgson Russ's senior Education Practice attorneys as they review the new procedures and timelines that school district officials need to be aware of (and implement) immediately, and as they collectively address the questions that the Executive Order has left unresolved so far.

- Review of the new timelines and procedures
- Immediate actions school district officials must take
- Any further clarifying guidance made available since the Executive Order was issued
- Review of outstanding questions relating to the Executive Order

Speakers: John Alessi, Andrew Freedman, Jeffrey Stone and Jeffrey Swiatek

Who should attend: Board of Education Members, Superintendents, Business Officials, District Clerks and other interested School District Administrators
