

NEW YORK RESIDENCY: ISSUES DURING COVID AND BEYOND

Webinars

October 21, 2020
10 a.m. - 12 p.m.
Event Sponsor: Wolters Kluwer

October 21, 2020

This 2-hour webinar will cover high-points of Governor Cuomo's 2020 – 2021 New York budget bill, including New York's decision to decouple from the federal Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security ("CARES") Act, and also discuss new and proposed legislation being considered for the 2021 – 2022 budget bill to stem the fallout from Covid-19's impact on New York. We will also discuss and review Covid-19's impact on New York residency issues, including changing domiciles during and after the Covid-19 crisis and monitoring statutory residency issues in New York and other states.

Who Should Attend

All CPAs, enrolled agents, tax return preparers, tax attorneys, and other practitioners who prepare New York returns, handle New York residency audits, or prepare multistate tax returns for clients.

Topics Covered

- High-points of the Governor's 2020 — 2021 budget bill
- Key proposed New York tax legislation, and planning for possible upcoming changes
- New York residency update & hot topics
- New Yorkers in other states: Residency issues to consider
- The potential impact of Covid-19 pandemic on future residency audits

Learning Objectives

- Define New York's residency requirements
- Identify key issues facing New York residents and nonresidents and strategies to defend positions in case of audits
- Recognize how to advise on clients on income allocation as a result of the Covid-19 pandemic

Attorneys

Timothy Noonan
Andrew Wright

Practices & Industries

State & Local Tax
Tax Residency

NEW YORK RESIDENCY: ISSUES DURING COVID AND BEYOND

Click here to register.

This webinar is part of the State Tax Issues of 2020 Fall Webinar Series. To register for the full series, click here.

