

FINANCING OF $200 MILLION NANOSCIENCE OFFICE BUILDING

Hodgson Russ is representing a local development corporation in the financing of a $200 million building related to the College of Nanoscale Science and Engineering. The project presents a number of issues, including the determination of portions of the building that qualify for financing with the proceeds of tax-exempt bonds.

Attorneys

A. Joseph Scott III

George Cregg

Practices & Industries

Technology