

SALE OF CANADIAN COMPANY WITH U.S. ASSETS TO AUSTRALIAN ACQUIRER

A Hodgson Russ team of corporate and securities attorneys led by John J. Zak represented a Canada-based professional services company with significant U.S. assets and operations in its sale to an Australian acquirer. The transaction involved an expedited Hart-Scott-Rodino antitrust filing and the issuance of acquirer securities to U.S. shareholders of the seller.

Practices & Industries

Antitrust, Trade Regulation &
Anticorruption

Canada-U.S. Cross-Border

Corporate & Business

Mergers & Acquisitions

Professional Services