

ASSISTED A CANADIAN START-UP COMPANY WITH THEIR EXPANSION PLANS INTO THE UNITED STATES ON A FULL RANGE OF SPECIALTIES

A team of Hodgson Russ attorneys assisted a Canadian start-up company with their expansion plans into the United States. The matter required a full range of specialties including immigration, tax, corporate, technology, and intellectual property. Our services included preparing and prosecuting trademark applications, forming a beneficial U.S. corporate structure, preparing agreements with vendors and users, and researching the U.S. patent landscape.

Practices & Industries

Startups & Emerging Companies

