

HODGSON RUSS ATTORNEY MICHAEL T. LOGAN NEWLY ADMITTED TO NEW YORK STATE BAR

January 28, 2013

Hodgson Russ is pleased to announce Michael T. Logan has been admitted to the New York State Bar and is now an associate attorney in Hodgson Russ's Real Estate & Finance Practice Group in the law firm's Albany office.

Mr. Logan concentrates his practice on various forms of financings for municipalities, school districts, municipal authorities, for-profit corporations, and nonprofit corporations. Such financings include general obligation debt, sewer and water revenue bond issues, and industrial development agency financings. Prior to joining Hodgson Russ, Mr. Logan participated in the Hodgson Russ summer associate program, interned in the finance division of National Fuel Gas Company, and worked as a legal aide in the Consumer Fraud Bureau of the New York State Office of the Attorney General.

Hodgson Russ attorneys facilitate the U.S. legal aspects of transactions around the world. The firm's attorneys practice in virtually every substantive area of law and generally use multidisciplinary work teams to serve the specific, often complex, needs of their clients, which include public and privately held businesses, governmental entities, nonprofit institutions, and individuals. In addition to its Albany office, Hodgson Russ has offices in New York City, Buffalo, and Johnstown, New York; Palm Beach, Florida; and Toronto, Ontario.
