

HODGSON RUSS PARTNER PAMELA DAVIS HEILMAN NAMED TO UNIVERSITY AT BUFFALO CO

February 20, 2008

BUFFALO, N.Y. — Pamela Davis Heilman, a partner in Hodgson Russ's Corporate & Securities, International/Cross-Border, and Nonprofit Law Practice Groups, has been named by Governor Eliot Spitzer to the University at Buffalo Council, the primary oversight and advisory board to the university and its president.

The University at Buffalo is the largest and most comprehensive campus in the State University of New York. Renowned as a premier research-intensive public university, it is home to over 28,000 students and offers more than 300 undergraduate, graduate, and professional degree programs.

Ms. Heilman practices out of the firm's Buffalo and Toronto offices. She is one of the lead lawyers in Hodgson Russ's cross-border Canada/U.S. practice and regularly counsels Canadian organizations and businesses considering expansion into the United States. She also has extensive experience counseling nonprofit organizations and closely held businesses. Ms. Heilman is a member of the board of directors and treasurer of the Canadian American Business Council.

Hodgson Russ attorneys facilitate transactions around the world and in practically every substantive area of law, generally using multidisciplinary work teams to serve the specific, often complex, needs of our clients. We serve publicly traded and privately held businesses, ranging from multinational Fortune 500 companies and mature service and industrial companies to emerging start-ups and small family businesses; governmental entities; nonprofit institutions; and individuals. Hodgson Russ has offices in New York City, Albany, Buffalo, and Johnstown, New York; Boca Raton and Palm Beach, Florida; and Toronto, Ontario.
