

HODGSON RUSS PARTNER MARK S KLEIN CONTRIBUTING EDITOR OF 2007 GUIDEBOOK TO NEW YORK TAXES

January 16, 2007

Mark S. Klein, a partner in Hodgson Russ LLP's State & Local Tax and Tax Dispute Resolution Practice Groups, is the contributing editor of the 2007 Guidebook to New York Taxes. This year marks the 42nd edition of the annually published guide.

Designed as a quick reference work, the Guidebook presents succinct discussions of state and local taxes, gives a general picture of the state tax laws and regulations, and highlights significant cases and administrative rulings. The Guidebook is useful to tax practitioners, New York and multistate businesspersons, and those who are obligated to file New York returns or who are required to deal with New York taxes.

The Guidebook is published by CCH, whose products track, report, explain, and analyze tax and related law in over 700 publications in print and electronic form for tax, accounting, legal, human resources, banking, securities, insurance, government, and health care professionals. The CCH brand has been a market leader since 1913, the year the U.S. federal income tax was created. It is one of the most respected names among accountants, attorneys, and compliance professionals.

Mr. Klein concentrates in New York State and New York City tax matters. He has over 20 years of experience with federal, multistate, state, and local taxation. Mr. Klein has lectured extensively throughout the United States and Canada and teaches courses on state taxation and tax practice and procedure at the State University of New York at Buffalo, School of Management Tax Certificate Program.

With more than 230 attorneys practicing in all major areas of law, Hodgson Russ is among the 200 largest law firms headquartered in the United States. It is one of approximately 100 firms in the country listed in America's Greatest Places to Work With a Law Degree. In June 2005, Hodgson Russ received the Carol S. Knox Family-Friendly Employer Award from the Capital District Women's Bar Association. Established in 1817, Hodgson Russ is among the oldest law firms in the United States. Hodgson Russ has two offices in New York, New York, and offices in Albany, Buffalo, and Johnstown, New York; Boca Raton and Palm Beach, Florida; and Toronto, Ontario.
