

REVISITING MORTGAGE TAX EXEMPTIONS FOR FEDERAL CREDIT UNIONS

Tax Notes State
October 10, 2022

Hodgson Russ Partner Sujata Yalamanchili, Summer Associate Sarah Shields, and Law Clerk Chelsea Reinhardt co-authored this most recent installment of TaxNotes State "Revisiting Mortgage Tax Exemptions for Federal Credit Unions." In this installment, they examine a recent decision by the U.S. Supreme Court to not consider a case involving the applicability of New York state mortgage recording taxes to a federal credit union.

Our summer associates gain that hands on experience by doing meaningful work and publishing alongside our attorneys.

To read the full article click here.

Attorneys

Sujata Yalamanchili

Practices & Industries

Real Estate & Finance