

EMPLOYEE BENEFITS DEVELOPMENTS MARCH 2019

Hodgson Russ Employee Benefits Newsletter
March 29, 2019

The Employee Benefits Practice is pleased to present the Employee Benefits Developments Newsletter for the month of March 2019. Click through the links below for more information on each specific development or case.

Court Holds Notice of Withdrawal Liability Assessment to Certain Controlled Group Members Serves as Adequate Notice to Other Controlled Group Members

Federal District Court Denies Motion to Dismiss Fiduciary Breach Lawsuit Against Owners of Company Who Transfer of Overvalued Stock to ESOP

Insurance Agents Properly Classified as Independent Contractors

Fidelity “Infrastructure Fee” Is the Subject of Government Examinations and Participant Lawsuits

Court Rules State Law Privacy Claim Not Preempted by ERISA

Attorneys

Peter Bradley

Michael Flanagan

Richard Kaiser

Ryan Murphy

Amy Walters

Practices & Industries

Employee Benefits