

LITIGATING THE FISA COURT ISSUE

The Bulletin
December 12, 2013

An article by intellectual property attorney Anne F. Downey, "Litigating the FISA Court Issue," appears in the December 2013 edition of the Bulletin, the official publication of the Bar Association of Erie County. This article, the third installment in a series about the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act (FISA), examines past and pending litigation related to NSA surveillance issues. Anne writes a monthly column for the Bulletin on a variety of cyberlaw topics.

Read the full article, " Litigating the FISA Court Issue."

Practices & Industries

Intellectual Property & Technology

