

Business Entity Formation

Laner Muchin advises companies from their earliest days, allowing entrepreneurs to focus on growing their client base. We counsel on proper entity selection, name identification, registration with the state, website domains, governance and other key concerns.

We also guide new companies through their limited window to comply with the Corporate Transparency Act (CTA).