

Business Immigration

We represent employers who are interested in sponsoring foreign nationals for temporary work visas and/or permanent residency.

Because our practice focuses upon working with employers to address their labor and employment needs, our immigration services are designed to obtain the desired immigration status while simultaneously safeguarding the employers' overall business interests.

In addition to our direct immigration services, we conduct extensive I-9 audits to ensure that the employers' records are accurate and up-to-date to reduce any potential liability.
