

Business Litigation

At Laner Muchin, our business litigation services address disputes between one or more businesses related to contracts, partnerships, and more. We defend businesses against claims of breach of contract, fraud, unfair competition, and a myriad of other disputes. Our team is dedicated to protecting business interests and achieving favorable outcomes through strategic, tailored solutions. If you are involved in a business dispute, it is important to have a seasoned commercial litigator on your side.