Jim served as the Managing Partner of Laner Muchin, Ltd. from 2017-2021, as well as Chair of the Litigation Department. Jim also served on the firm's Executive Committee for over 15 years. Jim joined Laner Muchin in 1989 and has been a partner since 1992. Jim regularly litigates employment matters in state and federal court, including employment contract disputes, restrictive covenant injunction matters, class-actions, as well as discrimination, harassment and retaliation claims.

Jim also regularly counsels clients regarding these types of matters and regularly participates in alternate dispute resolution proceedings, including mediations and arbitrations. Jim counsels both public and private sector employers. Prior to joining Laner Muchin, Jim served as a senior attorney in the City of Chicago Corporation Counsel's office specializing in employment defense and civil rights matters.
