William (Will) joined Laner Muchin in 2013 and is a partner at the Firm. He regularly advises public and private employers in compliance matters involving state and federal employment laws including the Family Medical Leave Act, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Fair Labor Standards Act, the Illinois Human Right Act, the American With Disabilities Act, and the Illinois Wage Payment and Collection Act. Will has represented numerous clients at mediations and fact finding conferences before the Illinois Department of Human Rights and the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. Will also specializes in advising clients on internal investigations, drafting useful and compliant employment policies and other best practices.

Additionally, Will has been appointed a Special Assistant Attorney General for the State of Illinois and advises and represents the Illinois State Superintendent of Education in actions against educators' professional educator licenses. Will also defends clients in discrimination, wage and hour and employment tort law cases in federal and state court.
