With less than six months to go before recreational cannabis is legal in Illinois, employers – especially those with employees in safety-sensitive positions – need to cut through the haze about how they will apply the new standard to workers.

This webinar will discuss:

- Revising Drug Testing Policies – Is “Zero Tolerance” Still Practical?
- Practical Considerations for Conducting Reasonable Suspicion Testing
- Recommendations for Pre-Employment and Random Drug Testing
- Reasonable Accommodation Considerations

CLE Credit:

This webinar has been approved for .75 CLE credit. If you wish to receive these credits, please email Melissa Marshall at mmarshall@lanermuchin.com for the sign-in sheet and course evaluation.
