

Laner Muchin Partner Rob Bernstein Presented “A Deep Dive into the Family First Coronavirus Response Act (FFCRA)” to the Coalition of Franchisee Associations

05.01.2020

Chicago, IL – Laner Muchin partner Rob Bernstein presented “A Deep Dive into the Family First Coronavirus Response Act (FFCRA)” to the Coalition of Franchisee Associations via webinar on Wednesday, April 29, 2020.

The webinar provided an overview of the Families First Coronavirus Response Act (FFCRA); including the Emergency Paid Sick Leave Act, Expanded Family Medical Leave Act, the Small Business Exemption and the required notice/poster all covered franchisees should be displaying in their locations.

Bernstein’s practice has been concentrated in defending employers in employment disputes and proceedings throughout the country, counseling employers on their day-to-day labor and employment issues, training management on a host of labor and employment topics, drafting and negotiating employment and non-competition agreements, drafting employee handbooks and corporate policy manuals, as well as handling collective bargaining negotiations and a variety of other labor and employment matters on behalf of employers. Most recently, Bernstein has been working closely with his clients as they guide their workforce through this pandemic.
