

Laner Muchin Attorney William Daniels Participated on a Panel Discussing “How to Work in the States” for the International Federation of Exhibition and Event Services 2018 World Summit

06.29.2018

Chicago, IL – Laner Muchin Attorney William Daniels participated on a panel discussing “How to Work in the States” at the IFES World Summit on June 28, 2018 at the Chicago Athletic Association Hotel in Chicago.

The panel and hands-on workshop discussed how foreign exhibitors, set builders and contractors can do business in or with US based exhibit halls and fair grounds. Topics included:

- Labor issues related to US based Unions and trade shows
- Where to look for information on labor rules related to US exhibit halls and fair grounds
- Immigration matters related to Visas and the waiver of such requirements for certain countries

Daniels concentrates his practice on representing employers in the trade shows industry in all types of labor matters, including withdrawal liability, immigration, labor management and Union negotiations.
