

Eight Laner Muchin Attorneys Recognized by Multiple Publications in 2021

02.15.2022

Throughout 2021, various industry-leading publications honored several Laner Muchin attorneys for their groundbreaking work in employment law.

In its inaugural employment law issue, Best Lawyers showcased four Laner Muchin attorneys. Joseph Gagliardo, Carl Tominberg and Joseph Yastrow were named to the Best Lawyers list in Employment Law – Management and Labor Law – Management. Additionally, Antonio Calderone was named to the Ones to Watch list in Labor & Employment Law.

Those four attorneys were also selected to the Best Lawyers and Ones to Watch lists, respectively, later in the year for Labor and Employment – Litigation and Management along with Anthony Dombrow, who was recognized by Best Lawyers for the seventh year in a row.

Crain's Chicago Business named Mark Bennett to its Notable LGBTQ Executives list. As a long-time advocate for diversity and inclusion within the Firm, Mark champions the efforts of Laner Muchin's Mentoring Program to ensure attorneys and staff of all backgrounds and identities feel valued and accepted.

Chicago Lawyer recognized Jeremy Edelson on its 40 Under Forty Attorneys to Watch list for his exemplary practice and esteemed reputation among both peers and clients. With more than 50 labor arbitrations under his belt, Jeremy's extensive experience sets him apart from other young attorneys in the field.
