

Robert Bernstein Shares Insights on Labor and Employment Law Developments and COVID-19 at the NISHRM Annual Employment Law Update

09.17.2021

Along with Kristin Case and Kathryn Hartrick, Laner Muchin Partner Robert Bernstein discussed recent federal and Illinois labor employment developments, including issues related to COVID-19, in the Northern Illinois Society for Human Resource Management (NISHRM) Annual Employment Law Update Webinar on September 10. Rob shared insights from the employer's perspective, whereas Kristin shared them from an employee's perspective. The virtual event was moderated by NIHSM Board member Kathryn Hartrick.

Rob's practice is concentrated in defending employers in employment disputes and proceedings, counseling employers on labor and employment issues, drafting and negotiating employment and non-competition agreements, drafting employee handbooks and corporate policy manuals and handling collective bargaining negotiations and arbitrations. Rob works closely with clients throughout the country to ensure they receive attentive counsel in all of these areas.

Firm Profile: Laner Muchin, Ltd. concentrates in the representation of employers in labor relations, employment litigation, employee benefits and business immigration matters. The firm provides legal services to clients from coast to coast.
