

Comprehensive Links of State Stay-at-Home and Re-Opening Orders

09.28.2020

Laner Muchin clients operate in many different areas of the country. Each state has the authority to set its own Stay-at-Home order or re-opening rules. In our continuing efforts to help you navigate through the maze of COVID-19 related compliance matters, we attach below a document with the effective dates of the various orders and links where you can find the actual order in effect. We will be updating this list periodically.

The updates will happen periodically, but may not be instantaneous. We will note the date of the last update in the document. If you have particular questions about any particular state or locality, please contact your Laner Muchin servicing attorney.
