

Two Hour Commitment

No Exceptions

At Laner Muchin, we're the nation's only law firm that returns clients' phone calls and e-mails within two hours or less. No exceptions. In the 70 years we've been in business, it's how we've always done it.

We didn't set that standard because it's easy - it isn't. We do it because it's important to our clients. Which makes it important to us.

So that's it. Two Hours. Period.[®] Faster, if you need us. Contact us anytime with a problem that requires immediate attention, and we'll be there for you. No voice mail purgatory. Laner Muchin returns your call or e-mail within Two Hours. Period.[®]

Even if one of us is on trial or in negotiations or a deposition or on a plane, there will be another attorney available to you whenever you call. Our two-hour commitment is our promise to dedicate ourselves to the profession's highest level of responsiveness.

Wouldn't it be nice to work with a top-notch lawyer who tried cases instead of your patience?

Take the Laner Muchin Challenge

If you are currently represented by a different law firm, you can experience the Laner Muchin difference. Take the Laner Muchin Challenge:

Call your current lawyer and leave a message to return your call. Wait an hour or two (to give your lawyer a decent head start), then call one of our lawyers and leave the same message. See who calls you back first; we're betting it will be us. If it's not us, we'll buy you lunch and donate $100 to your favorite charity.
