FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Michael S. Poncin and Michael T. Etmund Selected as ACA Attorney State Chairs

Minneapolis, MN (Oct. 6, 2016) – Moss & Barnett, A Professional Association, is pleased to announce that Michael S. Poncin and Michael T. Etmund have been selected as ACA Attorney State Chairs. Poncin will serve as the ACA Minnesota Attorney State Chair, and Etmund will serve as the ACA New York Attorney State Chair. Both Attorney State Chair terms will run October 1, 2016 to September 30, 2017. The Attorney State Chairs are attorneys who have volunteered to be available as a legal resource and referral attorney for ACA International, the Association of Credit and Collection Professionals.

Poncin has a nationwide civil litigation practice defending creditors, debt buyers, debt collectors, and attorneys in actions arising under the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act (FDCPA), Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA), Telephone Consumer Protection Act (TCPA), and additional federal and state laws and regulations. He provides advice and counsel on litigation and compliance issues across the United States.

Etmund practices in the areas of collection, breach of contract, and in the defense of the FDCPA, the FCRA, and other consumer protection statutes. He regularly represents creditors, including corporations and other general business entities, in contract, compliance, and commercial collection matters.

“I want to offer a hearty congratulations to my Moss & Barnett colleagues for both being selected as ACA Attorney State Chairs. It is a well-deserved honor recognizing their countless contributions to the debt collection industry. The ACA units in Minnesota and New York will be well-served by these outstanding attorneys,” said Chair of Moss & Barnett’s Creditors’ Remedies and Bankruptcy practice area, John Rossman.
