Join Moss & Barnett

Moss & Barnett seeks the best and brightest lawyers, the next generation of legal strategists, and hard-working, talented people who seek interesting, rewarding work and share our commitment to effective, professional service to our clients.

The key to Moss & Barnett's success is a culture that values and supports individual talent within a collaborative, team-based environment. We unite around a shared goal: providing exemplary legal representation to business and private clients. Thanks to our successes in this regard and our strong firm management, we are able to offer exemplary compensation to our lawyers and professional staff.

If working in a well-established, forward-thinking, and nationally recognized law firm sounds like the right fit for your skills, we look forward to hearing from you.
