PRACTICE AREAS: Estate Planning and Wealth Preservation

---

Maddie's practice focuses on estate planning, probate and trust administration, guardianship/conservatorship, and general real estate. She represents individuals and families in a variety of matters, from the preparation of estate planning and related real estate documents to the administration of estate and trust matters.

Maddie counsels clients in the areas of:

- Wills, trusts, powers of attorney, health care directives, and other estate planning documents
- Probate and trust administration
- Tax-reduction planning
- Business succession and exit planning
- Guardianship and conservatorship
- General real estate

Prior to joining Moss & Barnett, Maddie clerked at a Twin Cities law firm handling research and due diligence for real estate and general business matters. While completing her undergrad studies at Princeton, Maddie played Division 1 hockey and thereafter worked for the New York Rangers as a Senior Marketing and Community Relations Coordinator.
