PRACTICE AREAS: Business Law, Mergers and Acquisitions, Closely Held Businesses, Estate Planning and Wealth Preservation, Real Estate

Naomi is an experienced tax and business attorney assisting clients in structuring their business and personal ventures in a practical and tax-efficient manner. She provides strategic advice to clients in the areas of entity formation, buy-sell agreements, mergers and acquisitions, estate tax planning, and general business advice. Working as in-house counsel at leading manufacturing and technology companies has allowed Naomi to develop extensive knowledge of the business and legal needs of businesses, both established and in the growth stages. She is also experienced in individual and personal tax planning as well as estate and wealth preservation planning.

Because every client has its own unique goals and challenges, Naomi focuses first on understanding the vision and goals of each client before crafting and communicating innovative and effective solutions for both their business and personal planning.
