02.12.2015

Contractual indemnity and insurance obligations are two of the most important and misunderstood obligations in construction contracts. Attend this seminar to learn about Minnesota's new indemnity law and the exceptions passed to the new indemnity law, effective August 1, 2013, and the ongoing effort at the Minnesota Legislature to amend the new indemnity law. The seminar will help your company's executives, risk managers, contract administrators, and project managers better understand the landscape of Minnesota indemnity and insurance obligations in construction contracts.
