

Handling OSHA Citations & Investigation

Sponsored by Minnesota Subcontractors Association, Midland Hills Country Club, 2001 Fulham Street, Roseville, MN
03.10.2015

Safety has evolved from one of the things we have to do to part of the way we do almost everything. Even with best practices, citations are issued and accidents occur. This draws you, the subcontractor, into a legal morass. This seminar will help you avoid problems and understand your options when you have trouble.

Key Learning Points

- Who are you dealing with MnOSHA, Federal OSHA or?
- How to handle Compliance Officers & Interviews
- A citation has been issued - now what?
