After a loved one dies, there are a million questions that need to be answered. Understanding what processes take place before and after the funeral will help you make better plans to ease the burden on your loved ones and give you peace of mind. There are approximately 65 decisions that need to be made BEFORE the funeral . . . who is responsible for payment, types of services, who needs to be notified, what does the family need, is the funeral for the person who died or those who are still living? After death, who is responsible for paying the deceased bills and taking care of the deceased possessions? What happens if there is/isn't a Will? How are assets transferred to heirs? Is probate necessary? How long does probate take? GREAT information that we all need to know for decisions we are going to make! Join us and get some great answers.
